Biblical Premise

- Learning that the promises of scripture are given to us by God to be the exact thing we hold onto while we wait in the storm.

The Psalms are a collection of songs that God gave His people to worship.

What Kinds?

- Penitential Psalms
- Complaint Psalms
- Messianic Psalms
- Psalms of Ascent
- Psalms of Victory

What Is A Crisis?

- Your time of trouble.

Psalms 50:15

Core Teaching

- Peoples past does not define them.
- Your past does not define you.

Three Promises You Need To Be Able To Say With Confidence

1. That God Almighty is with me
 - Where you turn immediately when you need comfort is your functional savior.

No matter how bad it gets out there, I don't have to fear because God is in here.

- Fear in the scripture is less emotion and more a mindset.
- Fear says, God will not deliver. He will not come through.
- Fear is the opposite of faith.

Roman 8:35

Romans 5:8

Bible Study Tip

- Ask what it meant then, before you ask what it means now

This is who you are praying to.

2. God Almighty is for me
 - It's less the power of your prayers and more the power of the One to whom you pray.
 - God is not ashamed of you or your past.

1 John 4:10

3. God always wins.

2 Kings 19:14-19
